DANIEL L. HAULMAN TO PRESENT BOOK TALK AT THE ARCHIVES ON AUGUST 2 AT 12:00
THE TUSKEGEE AIRMEN CHRONOLOGY

Montgomery, AL (07/23/2018) – On Thursday, August 2 at 12:00, author and historian Dr. Daniel L. Haulman will present a book talk on his recent publication The Tuskegee Airmen Chronology: A Detailed Timeline of the Red Tails and Other Black Pilots of World War II at the Alabama Department of Archives and History (ADAH) in Montgomery. Admission is FREE.

Dr. Haulman's book provides a unique, year-by-year overview of the fascinating story of the Tuskegee Airmen, chronicling important events in the formation of the first military training for black pilots in United States history, the phases of their training at various air fields in Tuskegee and elsewhere, their continued training at other bases around the U. S., and their deployment overseas. On August 2, Dr. Haulman will share stories of these servicemen who fought two enemies, Nazis in Europe and racism at home, and ultimately earned a hard-won double victory.

Dr. Daniel L. Haulman is Chief, Organizational History Division, at the United States Air Force Historical Research Agency. He has authored many books and scholarly articles about the airmen. He co-authored the bestselling work The Tuskegee Airmen, An Illustrated History: 1939-1949, published by NewSouth Books. As a member of the Tuskegee Airmen Incorporated for many years, he has attended seven of the organization's conventions and counts many Tuskegee Airmen as personal friends.

Copies of the book will be available for purchase at the event. For more information about the book talk, call (334) 353-4689.
